1 Geographical information about Kosovo

The Republic of Kosovo has an area of 10,908 km², located on the south-eastern Europe, bordering Albania in south-west, Montenegro in northwest, Serbia to the north-east and Macedonia to south.

The territory lies within the latitude 41° 51' and 43° 16', and in longitude 19° 59' and 21° 47'.

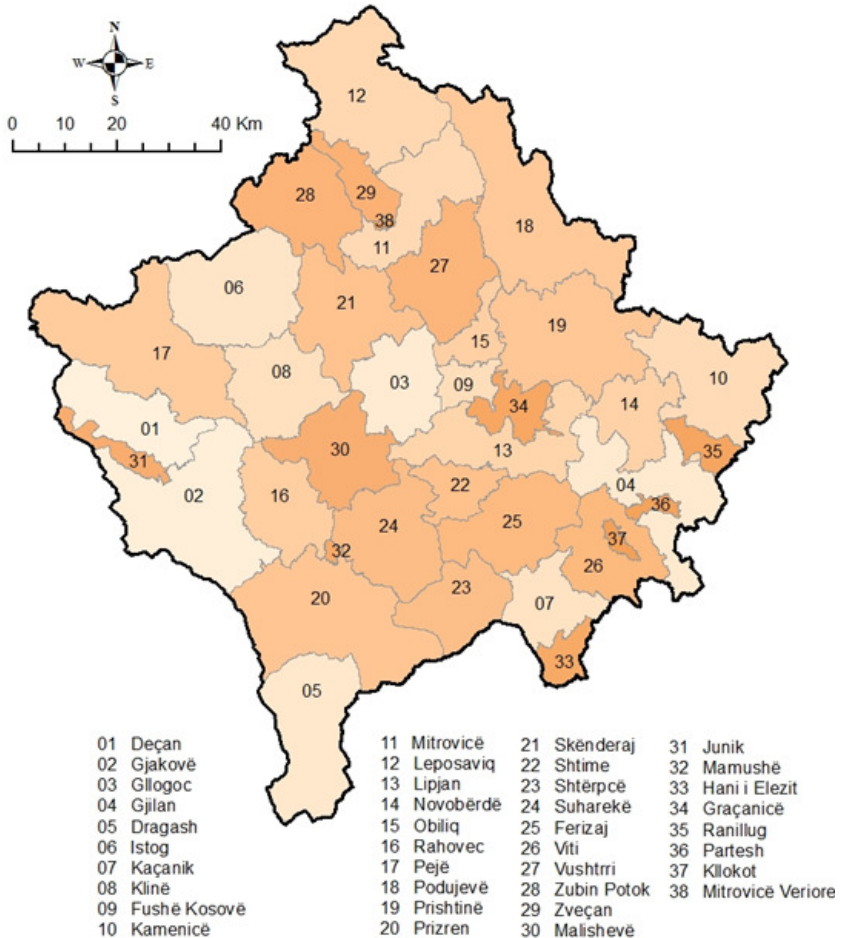

The territory of the Republic of Kosovo is characterized by different heights above sea level. The lowest point of Kosovo is located in the valley of the river Drini on the border with Albania and reaches up to 270m above sea level, the higher point is in western Kosovo in Gjeravica - 2.656m.

In hydrographic terms, Kosovo is divided into river basins: the Drini i Bardhë, Ibri, Morava Binqës and Lepeneci. Kosovo river's flows into three sea basins: the Black Sea, Adriatic Sea and the Aegean Sea.

Climate of the Republic of Kosovo in the most part is continental, resulting in warm summers and cold winters, with Mediterranean and continental influences (average temperature within the country range from +30° C in summer, at -10° C in winter). However, due to unequal elevations in certain parts of the country, there are changes in temperature and rainfall distribution.

Administrative division of Kosovo

Currently there are 38 municipalities with 1,469 settlements organized under the laws of the country.

Note: According to the Law no. 03/L-199, the organizational structure of the courts has changed. Now there are Courts of first instance (Basic Courts) within which are three departments: general, serious crimes and for juvenile. Due to the reorganization of the courts, the 2013 and 2015 data are non-comparative statistics with previous years. In this year the data were missing from branches of the Basic Court of Mitrovica, Leposavic and Zubin Potok branch. Also missing data regards to the branch of the Basic Court in Prishtina, in Gracanica, because of their non-reporting.

Data for municipal waste collected by the years 2007-2014 show that the waste collected by place of collecting have significant quantitative differences from year to year, this phenomenon is particularly noticeable in the years 2009 -2013 (graph 1). Also the data collected per capita per year/kg indicate that significant quantitative differences were observed since 2009-2014 (Graph 2).

14 Prices

CPI or HICP is a relative indicator that presents the dynamics of change or movement of retail prices for most representative items and services consumed by households in the period of time, involved in groups and subgroups, classified according to international nomenclature called COICOP (Classification of individual consumption by purpose).

CPI or HICP is a statistical parameter or Cost of Living Index considered as a parameter for measuring inflation, and contains time series for price indices for 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014 2015 with advanced progress.
